Food/Drug/Pet Recall: Lake Champlain Chocolates

Lake Champlain Chocolates (LCC) is issuing a public alert and a voluntary recall on select LCC milk chocolate products from a determined best-by date range for potential foreign objects. LCC is issuing this recall after a consumer reported finding brittle plastic pieces in a finished product. After initial investigations and out of an abundance of caution, LCC is voluntarily recalling all potential affected product currently on the market from July 2020 through January 2021. To date, no consumers have reported adverse health effects due to this contamination.

Affected products include:

Hazelnut External Link Disclaimer Five Star Bar
Fruit & Nut External Link Disclaimer Five Star Bar
Almond External Link Disclaimer Five Star Bar
Granola External Link Disclaimer Five Star Bar
Organic Milk Chocolate Bar with Sea Salt & Almonds
Milk Chocolate Almond Bark
Chocolates of Vermont Green Mountain

These products can be found within a variety of other gift packages, boxes and baskets. Please refer to the document at the end of this release for a detailed list of all affected products and associated Best By Dates.

These products were distributed through retailers and distributors across all fifty states and in the company's three Vermont retail stores.

The FDA has been informed of this voluntary recall and will post this notice on their website.

LCC is asking customers to discontinue use and immediately dispose of any products listed above.

Customers can find the Best By Date near the UPC code on the package. For any additional questions or concerns please email info@lakechamplainchocolates.com.

No other LCC products or batch codes were affected.
